Re: Terms of Retention as Attorney (Bankruptcy)

Dear Dr. Gillman:

As we discussed, it is this firm's standard practice to have a retention letter agreement with new clients and/or new engagements (the "Engagement Agreement"). This Engagement Agreement is also required by the local rules for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and may also be required under the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (the "BAPCPA"). This Engagement Agreement will set forth the terms of our firm's representation of ASTA Care Center of Rockford, LLC ("ASTA-Rockford") in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case. You should carefully read the rest of this letter and countersign the enclosed copy of it. Please feel free to call me if you have any questions but be sure that any clarification you get is incorporated in this letter before you countersign it. This will avoid any misunderstandings. This law firm will not do any work on your behalf until I receive a retainer and a signed Engagement Agreement.

Nature of Engagement. This Engagement Agreement is between Kokoszka & Janczur, P.C., (an Illinois Professional Corporation, engaged in the practice of law and possibly a Debt Relief Agency as currently defined under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code) and ASTA Care Center of Rockford, LLC ("Client"). The nature of this representation is to represent ASTA-Rockford in its bankruptcy case. My fee for a Chapter 7 case of this nature will be a total of $2,500.00 which includes the filing fee of $335.00. As additional facts are presented, the fees we charge may be subject to change. My fee includes the following standard services:

- Analysis of Client's financial condition;
- Advising Client as to the advisability and/or eligibility of seeking relief in bankruptcy under chapter 7, 11 or chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code;

ASTA Care Center of Rockford, LLC
c/o Dr. Michael Gillman
December 3, 2015
Page 2 of 4

- Assisting the Client in assembling documents necessary for or in connection with the filing of a Bankruptcy Petition;
- Advising Client to availability of personal exemptions under applicable law;
- Assisting Client in meeting all conditions precedent to making a petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code and in meeting all conditions precedent to obtaining a discharge, if Client is eligible to receive a discharge;
- Preparing Client for examination at meeting of creditors pursuant to Section 341 of the Bankruptcy Code;
- Assisting the Client in the enforcement of the automatic stay, if required;
- Communication with the Client's bankruptcy trustee, as necessary.
- Communication with the Client's creditors, as necessary.

If our firm does work on your behalf and you then decide not to file for bankruptcy or to not have our firm represent you in the bankruptcy filings, I will charge you at my usual hourly rate of $350.00 per hour for any work done.

Retainer & Fees. The entire fee ($2,500.00) must be paid before we file the bankruptcy case.

Additional Services. If your case becomes more complex, requiring anything beside what is listed above under "Nature of Engagement", I will require an additional fee for additional services. Client agrees to pay for legal services beyond "Standard Services" at the prevailing hourly rates of the attorneys of Kokoszka & Janczur, P.C. For example, if creditors file an objection or other action such as a request for a Rule 2004 exam and attendance at an exam or if the trustee attempts to liquidate any property, then I will most likely represent you at my usual hourly rate, which is currently $350.00 per hour. My hourly rate is subject to change upon thirty (30) days written notice. Please note that our firm's representation of you in a bankruptcy case does not include, inter alia, "cleaning-up" your credit report, post-bankruptcy.

Results. In the course of every matter, clients ask me for my advice and ask me to predict the likelihood of success and failure. I will give you the benefit of my honest judgment based on my experience. No lawyer can predict the outcome of every case. To the extent that I make predictions to help you evaluate your alternatives, you must understand that they are guesses based on my experience and not guarantees.

Your Duties. It is vital that you disclose all debts and all assets, any transfers of property or payments made to creditors within ninety days of the bankruptcy filing and any transfers of property made to creditors who are insiders within one year of the bankruptcy filing, plus all other information required in the bankruptcy petition, bankruptcy schedules and statement of financial affairs. If you provide any false or intentionally incomplete information, the bankruptcy case may be dismissed and/or you may be prosecuted under criminal law for bankruptcy fraud. Your bankruptcy case is subject to audit by the U.S. Trustee's Office and other federal agencies and offices. If you do provide false and/or intentionally incomplete information, I will withdraw as your attorney.

When the bankruptcy petition is filed, an automatic stay will go into effect. The automatic stay generally prohibits creditors from taking any action to collect their claims outside of the Bankruptcy Court. For example, if the automatic stay is in effect creditors are not allowed to sue ASTA-Rockford, or to foreclose upon or repossess any of property without obtaining permission from the bankruptcy court. It is essential, of course, that I be notified of any threatened lawsuits, foreclosures, or repossessions, as well as all pending lawsuits or other actions so that we can make sure that the creditors and their attorneys are notified and the action stopped. In most cases liens on property will not be wiped out by the bankruptcy. If you have any concern as to specific debts or liens, please contact me.

Termination and Withdrawal. You have the right to terminate my services at any time. Please keep in mind that if you terminate my services after the bankruptcy case is filed, I will have to file a motion to withdraw and seek permission of the Court to withdraw. If you terminate my services you will still owe me my full fee (plus any additional fees earned) and reimbursement of my expenses to the date of termination. I also have the right to withdraw from representing you at any time, subject to applicable ethical and procedural rules.

Client Cooperation and Communication. In order to represent you, it is absolutely essential that I be able to reach you and that you cooperate with the preparation for any proceedings. Please notify me in writing immediately of any new addresses or telephone numbers.

While I pride myself on the attention that I give to my clients' matters, please know that there will be many times when I will be difficult to reach because I am in court, out of the office at a meeting or on the phone concerning another client's or possibly your case. If you call my office and I am not available, please let my assistant or the receptionist who takes the call know the reason for the call and any information (be as specific as possible) that will allow me to pertain to your matters as quickly as I can. You can also leave a confidential message on our voice-mail system. I can also be reached at my e-mail address: fkokoszka@k-jlaw.com.
